FEES AND BILLING CADENCE

Services and changes The provider will perform the services described above and in signed statements of work. Scope, schedule, or price changes require written approval by both parties.

Client responsibilities The client will provide timely access, decisions, content, and approvals. Schedule effects caused by delayed client input will be handled reasonably and documented.

Fees The client will pay undisputed invoices according to the billing terms entered above. Each party is responsible for its own taxes except taxes the other party must collect by law.

Ownership Each party retains its pre-existing materials. Ownership or licensing of new deliverables follows the applicable statement of work and is effective after payment of the related fees.

Confidentiality Each party will protect the other's non-public information, use it only to perform this agreement, and disclose it only to people with a need to know and similar obligations.

Warranty and liability Each party will perform its obligations professionally and lawfully. Any specific warranties, acceptance criteria, liability limits, or indemnities must be stated in a signed statement of work or addendum.

Term and disputes The agreement continues until terminated under a statement of work or on reasonable written notice. Accrued payment, confidentiality, ownership, and dispute terms survive as applicable.
