SERVICES SUMMARY

FEE AND PAYMENT SCHEDULE

- Services The contractor will perform the services and deliverables described above and in any signed statement of work, using professional skill and reasonable care.
- Fees and expenses The company will pay the agreed fees after receiving accurate invoices. Expenses require advance written approval and reasonable documentation.
- Independent status The contractor controls the manner and means of performing the services and is responsible for taxes, insurance, permits, and personnel, subject to applicable law.
- Work product Upon full payment, deliverables created specifically for the company transfer to the company to the extent permitted by law. Pre-existing tools remain with their owner, with a license as needed to use the deliverables.
- Confidentiality and security Contractor will protect company confidential information, follow reasonable security requirements, and promptly return company property at the end of the engagement.
- Term and termination Either party may terminate as stated in a signed statement of work or, if unstated, on reasonable written notice. The company will pay for accepted work completed through termination.
- General terms Neither party may bind the other. Changes must be written and signed. The parties will comply with applicable law, and unenforceable terms will be limited without invalidating the remainder.
